Greetings to you in the precious name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

As we enter the New Year, we all have our own concerns that trouble us. It may be health issues, or financial pressures, or a big decision you need to make. It could be family problems or marital struggles or issues at school or on the job. A question arises: Do we know for certain what will happen next year? The answer of course is no. Can our worrying about the future change the course of events? No. Then why bother worrying at all? The past is done for, the future is not yet, why let worry ruin the present—the only moment we have?

Worry and prayer are opposites—like water and fire. We can worry or we can pray but we can't do both at the same time.

Paul has three pieces of advice for all of us in the New Year 2016:

- A. Pray about everything – “in everything by prayer”
- B. Pray with thanksgiving – “with thanksgiving”
- C. Pray with expectation – “present your requests to God”

When we take our burdens to the Lord, he replaces our worries with something much greater: the peace that passes all human understanding. That peace will “guard” our heart. When we pray, God's peace will become a guard on our heart, protecting us from the cares of the world that could otherwise destroy us

As we enter another year let us all pray and ask God to bless and guide us so that this new year may bring lots of Happiness and Joy in our homes and in our families and in the society in which we live .

WISH YOU ALL A VERY HAPPY AND PROPEROUS NEW YEAR 2016
