Christmas Message from the Presbyter

For unto us a child is born: - Unto us a Son is given and the government shall be upon His shoulders and His Name shall be called Wonderful Counsellor, the Mighty God, the everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace.

Christmas is approaching and we all have entered into another season of Christmas with the first Advent which was on 28th November. Christmas is a time for joy, happiness and togetherness. It is a festive season and a time of excitement.

But in midst of all these festivity and joy and happiness we are now getting the news of a new variant Omicron which is quite scary and frightening.

In his letter to the believers in Rome, the Apostle Paul expressed his complete confidence in the reality of God's love regardless of circumstances. He asked with boldness, "If God is for us who can be against us?"

If God gave His very own Son, Jesus to save us, then he will provide everything we need to finish this life well.

Paul listed seven seemingly unbearable situations that he himself faced; trouble, hardship, persecution, famine, nakedness, danger and the sword. He didn't imply that Christ's love would stop bad things from happening. But Paul said “in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us”. Romans 8:37.

Through the uncertainty of this world God can be trusted completely, knowing that nothing, absolutely “nothing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord”.

During this time of uncertainty when we don’t know what lies ahead of us. Let us know that Christmas is a time of hope for a better future. Christmas is a time where we welcome the son of God in our lives with a promise that he is with us to take care of us.

While Christmas is full of joy and celebration, the world is not exempt from sorrow during this season.

For many of us, our hurting hearts experience intensified ache which can be due to several reasons. May be the memory haunts as part of a painful past something we wish could be changed or undone. Pain not only exists from the past, but in the daily present.

Discouragement doesn’t stop lurking, Decease doesn’t stop waging its war. Death doesn’t pause for a few days.

No matter what is causing your hurt, allow yourself the opportunity to recognize the struggle. Christmas inspires hope for a brighter tomorrow for a world with no fear.

The symbols and stories surrendering the birth of Jesus whisper into our ears. Don’t give up keep going. Have faith and keep growing in the love of Christ Jesus our Lord.

Let us remember that Christmas isn’t Christmas till it happen in your heart.

Somewhere deep inside you is where Christmas really starts

So give your heart to Jesus You'll discover when you do

That it's Christmas, really Christmas for you
